Club Celebrates 54th Anniversary at Bayshore Community Center & DeLue Clubhouse

The Mid-Peninsula Boys & Girls Club held its 54th Anniversary Gala at the DeLue Clubhouse at the Bayshore Community Center in Daly City on Sat., Oct. 17th. Over 350 guests attended the event which generated over $70,000 towards after-school program support.

KGO TV News Anchor Carolyn Johnson emceed, with San Mateo County Supervisors Adrienne J. Tissier and Carol Groom handling live auction duties.

Entertainment included performances from the Robertson Inter. School Choir, our Club's Drum Corps & a Tahitian Dance Troop, Te Orma.

A gourmet, catered dinner followed served by Club members and parents.

The City of Daly City was honored with Vice-Mayor Michael P. Guingona accepting the award on behalf of the city. Additionally, Robert & Rita DeLue presented Brittney Egan with the coveted Youth of the Year award (see story below).

The unique collaboration between the City of Daly City and the Club enabled the DeLue Boys & Girls Club at the Bayshore Community Center to open the doors of this 27,000 sq.-foot facility in Daly City Officials honored .

March, 2006. Featuring classrooms, a public library, technology center, fitness center and gym, this multi-use facility is a true community resource.

Over 150 youth attend Club programs daily with an equal number of local residents visiting the DC branch library or attending other programs and activities within the Center.

2009 Youth of the Year Honored

A club member since 6 years-old, 16 year-old Brittney Filimoehala-Egan has distinguished herself as a positive role-model and mentor for all youth attending our Peninsula clubhouses.

Brittney speaks from her heart when she says: "It's a place where I feel safe and cared about."

A Junior at Aragon High School in San Mateo, Brittney plans to major in Communications at the University of Hawaii in Fall 2011.

The MPBGC is proud to

Brittney Filimoehala-Egan

honor Brittney as our 2009 Youth of the Year.
